“ Lee Moore was a great Godly man. One of the sweetest, kindest men I ever met in my life. I can't recall a time that I saw him that he didn't hug me and ask about my family. My heart breaks for Judy, Jessica and Eli. I know he will truly be missed.

“ I am saddened to hear of Lee's passing. Every time I ever saw him over the years, He always had a kind and sweet humble heart. He was one of very few men who spoke the truth in love. He cared for everyone. He always made me feel welcome. He was a true Christian man who was full of wisdom and guidance. His smile and tender heart was the man he was. He would greet with a hug when he saw me and my family members. God truly has an Angel with Him now. His loving spirit will forever remain in the hearts of his loving family and friends, as well as those he came in contact with, even if briefly. I know he touched many hearts and souls and led many to Christ, not only by words and prayer but by the life he lived. My prayers are with you Jessica, Eli and Judy and all of Lee's family. He Truly Loved you all with all of his Heart and it was shown.

“ .Lee was a awesome man....he was the most humble and caring and sharing and forgiving man I've ever met.. he taught me so much about the Bible and to hear him preaching was just what you needed to hear....he taught me love because he gave me love and it was tough love...he also taught me humbleness and he was so humble that I could talk to him about anything and he would give me a straight answer.....I will always cherish the time we spent building the shop even then he showed me too never give up and always be your best...he was digging for days getting the concrete ready.....but most of all I'll never meet a man that's so humble and loving as Lee Moore....God has a angel in heaven right now because he was on earth....love you Lee and thanks for teaching me and loving me and just being a man everyone would want to be....

“ Lee was one of the most influential forces in my life. He was a true man of God. One that was brave enough to allow the love of Jesus Christ to shine through. His loving nature and peaceful reassurance helped me several times in my 42 years. He was one of my dads best friends and was always there through my growing up years. When I got older I worked at Huntsville Schools for 4.5 years. During those years I would stop by the cabinet shop and get Lee to pray with me about different things. He was one of the 2 preachers in my wedding. I have a couple of friends that passed too early. They knew Lee and I imagine him in heaven praising right beside them. I bet he is making beautiful pieces of woodwork in Heaven. One day we will be blessed enough to see all that God has allowed Lee to do in Heaven.

“ I still remember moving to Huntsville when I was 9 and Ty was 11. We lived with Aunt Judy and Uncle Lee until Mom and Dad found a place for us to live. They had a big pet snake named George and a tiny Chihuahua named PP that could jump up in your arms. We met Whisper and Rex...that's when my love for horses first began. Uncle Lee and Aunt Judy taught us how to ride horses. I lived for the after school feedings and riding on the weekends. Both had such patience with me. I still talk about those wild adventures today and will never forget what joy it brought to me as a child. Uncle Lee was also a talented carpenter that made beautiful furniture and a mean pot of homemade spaghetti! One thing I remember most is the love that they had for each other! Jessie, when you were born, you were the apple of your daddy's eye! He loved you and your mom more than life itself! I will always remember the good times we all had. Love you all!

“ Our family here in Virginia sends their love and condolences to each of our family members and his friends. We also lived singing together and with the family. That was a very special time in my heart as well. We send love to you all and many prayers towards your future of dealing with the loss of such a wonderful person in your lives. He loved his family dearly. That is a treasure to last a life time. Love you all.

“ Lee and Judy and you too were very sweet, special friends to Deborah and me . When he and I worked together at Andy's I remember y'all moved into your house in New Market and after the deal a was closed found out you had sulphur water in your well and poor Lee was so imbarast and kept apologizing to us when we came to visit. He invited us to diner for salsbury steaks but he used the wrong seasoning and was so worried, it was awful but we ate it anyway and had a big laugh, loved your folks , hope Judy is doing better..

“ I remember your wedding and Lee walking you down the aisle, at the end of the aisle Butterfly Kisses played and there wasn't a dry eye in the church. His love for you was rolling down his face. Very touching and beautiful Lee has always been a good guy, he will be missed. Love, hugs and prayers for you Jessie and Judy and Eli

“ Lee was a precious man. When I was little I remember him cooking spaghetti with the biggest meatballs I'd ever seen. As an adult I shared that memory & he whipped me a batch of those big ole meatballs up & him Judy brought them all the way to Huntsville to me.
He loved to see pictures of my family. If I missed posting pictures for a moment he was sending me a message worried he had some how hurt my feelings. He always bragged on my family & me & Ryan as parents. He always made sure we knew he was praying for us & loved us.
