“ Pauline would drive out to the farm with a car load of her kids and pick me up. She would cook us a huge super. After cleanup she'd grab the big heavy pot, sugar, butter, cocoa and start stirring. I called it the 2 way fudge sometimes she gave you a slice sometimes you got a spoonful. Both were delicious!! Thank you for loving me.

“ Pauline was 8 when I was born and Mothered me for 8 decades. Twice when I was homeless she welcomed me into her home to live with her family. She's shared her hugs and smiles and love and kisses with both my daughters for over 5 decades. Pauline, You taught me 66 years ago when Mommy died and you wiped my tears away that God allows the sleep of death so we don't suffer. Sis, I'll see you in the Morning.

“ What a lovely idea, Ruth. Each morning with my morning devotion I will enjoy a candle and include a prayer of remembrance for my Big Sis and a prayer of Blessings for each one who's comforted all of us. Thanks

“ 🦋 Pauline was a loving, nurturing sister from an early age. Because she was the first born, she always helped mom care for the younger children. She was loved and will be missed. She will be forever in our hearts. We have wonderful pictures and memories of her to cherish. And we have Jesus' promise for a Heavenly reunion with her someday.
Love you sis,

“ Pauline had 5 kids of her own, but she would come to the farm and take me home also. After eating a huge super. She would bring out a big pot, butter, sugar, cocoa and stir. I call it the two kind fudge. Sometimes she handed you a slice sometimes you got a spoonful. Didn't matter to us kids it was so good. Thankyou for loving me. Make memories they last a lifetime.

When I had daughters she added them to her hugging list. Pauline, When Mommy died 66 years ago you dried my tears and taught me God allows the sleep of death to prevent us from living in pain. I'll see you in the Morning, Sis
