“ Hi Forrest, this is Bill Taylor from your Montgomery days at the corner of Oak St I think. Anyway, I'm sorry to hear about the passing of your sister. I remember seeing her around the house in the afternoons watching TV shows like, I think, Hulabaloo, a dance show for teenagers. Anyway, I thought she was so 'cool'. Hope you and yours are well otherwise. Blessings on ya !

“ My heartfelt condolences to Alice's family, and to all who love her. She was a wonderful person, with a wicked sense of humor, and a heart as big as the world. I will always treasure the time I spent with her. The world is a much better place because of her.

“ Alice won my heart the day I met her,I still remember when I would help put her makeup on.She love to fix her face before she would come out of her room.Everytime I go in her room she always put a smile on my face.I love her so much.She would talk about her dog and she made me laugh.She would tell me about her been a nurse.The years of all the memories I have with her will always remain in my heart.Love you Alice RIP

“ Heaven gained an 😇 today that's for sure. One of the first patients I met that gained my heart. I am so grateful to have the memories we have together even though it was a short time. One thing I will always remember you told me , You are doing a great job , and I replied I try and you said no you do. I'll forever remember that. RIH Mrs. Alice 🙏❤️🌸
