“ I ache to hear of Bill's death. My grandson has grown-up looking forward to hugging "Mr. Bill" at Costco. I loved the Christmas season at Costco when he would bring his record-changer stereo and Christmas records and play them. He and I talked about the Firestone and Goodyear Christmas records from the '60s and '70s. I thank him for his Army service. I am sorry I did not know him better. RIP, dear American.

“ Bill was a great guy, friend. I knew him briefly at Dunlop Tire Corporation but got to know and love him seeing him at Costco gas lane, I loved our quick conversations and updates on who we knew, I loved it when he played his music early Sunday , Saturday mornings at Costco gas lane and I will never forget his Christmas spirit and decorating his bright yellow jacket with ornaments and Christmas lights. He loved living in the country,, loved his family. The gas lane at Costco will never be the same . He is greatly loved and missed

“ There are so many good memories that it is difficult to narrow it down. He was always goofy and fun; there was never a dull moment. I remember vacations in Florida and fishing off of the pier, birthday parties, holidays and all the little days in between. He was always accepting no matter how quirky I became. I will miss him to the core of my soul, but he will always be in my heart and in my memories.
