“ Dear Brad Jones family. I'm John Pfeifer. I've known brad since 1975. I worked with him on his first Kaufman job and we've been great friends We were in Houston together and worked far from home together. He was well liked by all his fellow bricklayers. We drank together and laughed and had all kinds of fun at work I'm very sorry for your loss. He will be missed by everyone who new him. My thoughts are with all of you today and always. Love john
