“ Caleb, you'll be sorely missed. Things were never boring having you around the homestead. You never complained and were willing to do any work offered and eager to learn what you didn't know. Always a bright smile and laughter and you sure did make an old lady proud seeing the way you appreciated sharing a home cooked meal and keeping me company from time to time. I never drive down 69a without thinking of you and all the times I told you to get your Lil butt in the truck out of the summer heat. You'll NEVER be forgotten and there's a tree being placed on the property in honor of you. Your laughter and goofy antics left a happy footprint here and in my heart. And, no I'm still not getting you a kangaroo or an ostrich out here!!! Be at peace son, you'll always be in my thoughts and prayers beautiful boy. ❤️
