“ Candy, this is such a beautiful photo of you even though it is my first time seeing it and I didn't know you then. You have made so many of my years better. I will always remember all of our laughs and our tears together. You and Cassy always made a good time an even better time. You were always there for me when I needed someone to understand what I was going through. No fussing and no judgment! I will always be grateful for that. You were the first one I told about Layla. I am going to miss you so much. But I know beyond a doubt where you are and that you are at peace now. Harry and I wanted to have that cookout we talked about a few weeks ago, we wanted to see you at the store again, I wanted to hear you laugh and see you smile one more time. I pray that you heard me tell you that I loved you at the hospital but regardless if you did or not...I know that you already knew. Fly high Sweet Love!

Your other daughter, Crystal
