February 2, 1954 - December 9, 2023

On Saturday, December 9, 2023, Charles Victor Remagen, age 69, passed away peacefully at home. All who were lucky enough to know him called him Vic. He was a loving man of God and a man of many talents. He had a wide range of talents, specializing in everything from truck driving, electrical work, plumbing, construction, and computers. In his younger years he enjoyed baseball, going hunting and on fishing trips. He was raised in West Virginia before he moved away only to find his soul mate back in his hometown while on a trip to see family. Two short months later, they were married and were lucky enough to spend 40 amazing years together. He loved being a father and Granddad. Through the years, he became known by many and loved by all. He was widely known as a man with a big heart and unquestionable integrity and quirky sense of humor.

“ I remember the very first time that I had met Mr. Vic. It was when his grandson Jonah was born. Tho I have known his son Joe and wife Tammy for somewhere around 13 years, give or take. I remember shaking Mr. Vic's hand and then realized that his hands were like a bears hands. Every time that I would see Joe and Tammy, I would ask about Mr. Vic. I was always wondering how he was doing and my wife Donna and I would tell Joe that we are praying for Mr. Vic. We did not see much of Mr. Vic but I know that he was and is a very kind man. Mr. Vic, you are and will be very missed. Donna and I love you. Fly high, Mr. Vic.

“ I remember a camping/fishing trip to stockton lake with Uncle Chuck, Uncle Paul, Vic, Uncle Walt, Carlon, Gloria, myself, we all had so much fun laughing together. I will always remember how kind and patient Vic was teaching me about fishing. He always knew just what to say, whenever you were feeling down. Thank you for many happy memories, my cousin, love you.
