“ I will always picture Earl rubbing the top of his head when things were getting to him at work. We worked together at CKNA in electronics for a lot of years. My prayers are with all of you at this time.

“ *Dear Barbara and Family,
What an incredible Labor of Love you all have just completed. Well done, mission accomplished because you provided the very best care right up to the end. Thank you for inviting us to travel with you for a ways on the journey. May God now begin the process of healing your hearts as you go on a grief journey for a ways. A grief journey may well be described in the Bible --- Psalm 5:3. Travel well and trust God to help as you continue to tell the stories over and over and over again. Remember Jesus Knows and Jesus Cares. Tell your pastor I appreciate his love and dedication to serve others. May the Lord bless you and keep you and may He send His wonderful peace.
