

Claudia Lux Dunavant

March 28, 2012 - August 4, 2012

Claudia Lux Dunavant, aged four months and six days, passed away Saturday, Aug. 4, 2012, at her home in Pulaski.

She is survived by her devoted mother, Sasha Kay Dunavant, and by her grandmother Claudia Kay Johnson Nichols, and grandfathers Danny Nichols of Campbellsville and Richard Hannah Dunavant of Chicken Creek.

She was the great-granddaughter of Edward Franklin Johnson of Rose Hill and Mark Hannah and Louise Colvin Dunavant of Campbellsville.

She was preceded in death by her great-grandmother, Okaleen Carvell Johnson.

She is also survived by two uncles, Benjamin Edward Johnson of Nashville and James Hannah Dunavant of New York, N.Y. Many friends and family members grieve her loss.

Lux was born March 28, 2012, in Pulaski. She held your finger when you fed her, had learned to turn over by herself and bounced with glee to music. Her smile illuminated any room she entered, and she laughed with joy at the wonder of her new world.

The impact of her life on those who loved her will be celebrated at a later date at a private memorial service for immediate family and close friends with burial in Rose Hill Cemetery, Campbellsville, Tenn.

In lieu of gifts and flowers, the family requests that expressions of sympathy be made to the

Claudia Lux Dunavant Memorial Fund, via mail in care of First Farmers and Merchants Bank, 302 South 2nd Street, Pulaski, TN 38478, or at any FF&MB location.

Bennett May - Giles County Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements for Claudia Lux Dunavant.

“ *The daily pictures of Lux were so precious. I felt as if I knew her. I shared in your joys as a parent/grandparents. Now I share in your sorrow as that little light as gone out. I pray that your souls will heal, but know that this is such a memory that only time will help. Lux will never be forgotten for she has touched so many in her brief time on earth. Love and prayers to all. Connie Bass ;Matthew 11:28-29
Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.*

“ I am so sorry that your family has lost your beautiful little Lux. Most of us cannot know how you all feel, but know that there are truly no words to describe it.

It is unfortunate that I only came to know of your baby through her passing, but it has struck me so many times as I read your posts that this was a child loved to the depths of her being. What a lucky girl. And what a lucky family to have this girl, even if only for a moment.

I truly hope that your faith brings you solace, along with the knowledge that the hearts of strangers ache with yours.

Rest in peace, sweet one.

“ Lux

*As pure as the winter's first snow...you are,
A vision of innocence blessed from afar.
Sent to this earth for us all to love,
A cherished, adorable, gift from above.
A child of the angels and Godchild to me,
The dearest of treasures there ever could be!*

I love you, my precious angel.
