“ I never met you, neither have I ever seen you. However, we have connections through family, friends and most importantly, the Blood of JESUS CHRIST. You have such a wonderful, loving family, therefore, I have to believe that you are the same. You were reared in love from good stock. Yet, JESUS loved you more. My husband and I send condolences from the Smith family to your family. Meanwhile, take your rest in the arms of our LORD and SAVIOR, JESUS CHRIST, knowing that you are in good company with love ones gone on before you.

To GOD be the glory,
Mike and Clara Massey Smith

“ My cousin will forever be the Spade Champ. His laugh was contagious. He was always the life of the party at family get togethers. You will truly be missed.
