

David Harold Norvell

September 2, 1958 - June 16, 2023

David Harold Norvell, 64, of Pulaski, Tennessee passed away Friday, June 16, 2023. He was born in Dayton, Ohio on September 2, 1958 to Harold and Juanita Norvell.

David grew up in Madison, Alabama and graduated from Sparkman High School in 1976. He lettered in football, baseball and golf all multiple years while at Sparkman. David also played basketball through the Madison YMCA, where his father helped coach the team. He attended J.F. Drake State Community and Technical College. After living in Savannah, Tennessee, David relocated back to Madison before moving to Pulaski in 2003. He worked most of his career as an electrician for Lones Electric Company in Huntsville before he stopped working last year due to health issues. David enjoyed various interests, including spelunking, where he participated in the mapping of uncharted caves and cave rescues; building model train sets, collecting guns; being a NASCAR fan (Dale Earnhardt, Sr.) and in his later years completing complicated word puzzles. Throughout his life, David had a heart for animals, caring for many different types, including guinea pigs, rabbits, dogs, a bird (Barney), and cats.

Sister, Karen (Mike) Williams of Madison

Nieces, Nicole and Laura

Aunts, Geneva Norvell, Ilene Rogers and Audrey Norvell

Uncle, Dean (Kathy) Evans

Numerous cousins, life-long friends, former co-workers, and his cherished cat, Sally.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Harold Laverne and Juanita Evans Norvell.

To honor David's love for animals, you may make a donation to an animal-related charity of your choice.

“ I send my heartfelt condolences to Karen and David's family. I have known David since I was 11, and grew up with him through my teen and college years. We stayed in touch well into our adult years, so David is a life-long friend. David, I love you man. May you rest in peace, and I will see you on the other side.
