“ It's too hard to actually say goodbye to the coolest and hardworking GM's I ever worked under. The two years that I knew David were two good years I'm going to miss your corny yet funny jokes and all the stories you had to tell while doing prep. I know the chipotle fam that we built in those two years are all very emotional to see one of our greats go to soon. Although I may not work there anymore I will still miss you bro!
