“ And one of not the memory I have of Uncle Don, he always kept a box of ice cream sandwiches in the freezer for Destiny my oldest daughter but was only like 2 at the time and that freezer was the first she ran to then to him more than a few days a week at one point. I never knew he was a loving man when it came to any kid til those days that are just memories now. Thank u Uncle Don

“ Ole Scurv, always called me Uncle Dave, I know it's not right to say but would always tell me to work on James Earl Ray day that it was no holiday lol, sorry but I had to. Him and Daddy were the two best men I ever knew, I got so many memories of Uncle Don, I tell u what though if u was ever bored u could just pull up at his house and talk/reminisce or bs four hours, I remember he didn't wear his heart on his sleeve but he got me out of a few jams from trucks that wouldn't start to posting my bond, I remember the day we put Daddy in the ground Donnie hugged me so tight and told me he loved me for the first time and it meant a lot, between him and Daddy there was no problem they couldn't resolve, I remember them shutting down the school buses, Donnie being on the news with me there with him when they shut down Milky Way to put in some dang circle lol, he loved his personal family he built wife, daughter, grandsons, great grandson and great granddaughter. We put away a few hundred bails of hay one summer off a low boy trailer and pitch it to his seemed like 20 foot high lift, he said Uncle Dave stop hit that hose we are in the red zone lol but he worked like a mule. I love You Uncle Don and U and Daddy, Mike, Aunt Barb and the rest of the Burchells give Heaven some Hell until we all meet again, I love U and Tell Daddy I love and miss y'all both.
