

Edith Pulley Case

November 8, 1924 - May 23, 2019

Edith Pulley Case of Prospect passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 23, 2019 at White House Health Care in White House, TN. She was born in Prospect on November 8, 1924 and was 94 years old.

She was a loving daughter, sister and aunt, a graduate of Prospect High School, and a medical transcriptionist at Nashville Memorial Hospital, loved cats and was a very solitary person.

A graveside service will take place on Sunday, May 26th at 3:00pm in Prospect Cemetery, Prospect, Tennessee.

Preceded in death by a brother, John I Case, Sr. sister, Frances Harris, parents, Grover Cleveland and Mary Elizabeth Pulley Case nephews, Robert Case and Richard Case and a niece Deborah Case Thompson.

Survived by her

Nephew, John I (Linda) Case, Jr. of Cottontown, TN.

Nephew, Tommy (Charlene) Case of Hendersonville, TN.

Nephew, Greg (Pam) Harris of Chapel Hill, TN.

Nephew, Charles (Peggy) Harris of Auburn, AL.

Niece, Martha Jane Case (Chris) Johnson of Goodlettsville, TN.

Bennett-May & Pierce Funeral Home and Crematory in charge of arrangements for Edith Pulley Case.

Tribute Wall

JT

“ I worked with Ms. Case for over 45 years. We each held positions at Vanderbilt University Hospital and at Nashville Memorial Hospital. She was a very special lady to both my wife Linda and I. We continued to enjoy our friendship socially for many years after our retirements. We will treasure those memories, and miss her for all our days.

John & Linda Tanner

---

john tanner - February 09, 2019 at 02:11 PM