“ Elizabeth was my mother's best friend and a friend to our whole family. I will never forget her assisting us at the fabric stores, going to Highland and helping me with Sasha when mother was sick. All my love to her children.

“ To the entire family,
I am very sorry for the loss of your mother and grandmother. I was so lucky to have had the opportunity to sit and talk with my great-aunt Liz when I was in TN a few years ago. She was so sweet and shared her pictures with me and beamed with pride of her close family. She stood proudly on her front porch and took pictures with all of us that special day. I will do my best to dig those out and send them to you. I will treasure those moments. Hugs to all of you.
Sincerely,
Jeannie (granddaughter of Joe Tidwell, daughter of Edward)

“ Dear Family,

Your dear mother was loved so much by her personal family as well as by her extended family. We are so sorry that Aunt Liz is no longer with us, but we know that she was expecting to go "when her mansion was ready" because she always told us that. She dispensed good Christian guidance and that, along with her loving ways, are what we will always remember about her.

*With our deepest sympathy, much love and many happy memories,
