“ I always called her Mrs. Faye. She was one of the most incredible woman I have ever known. She was (to me) my adopted mother, best friend and mentor. She was good to everyone who worked with her, great sense of humor, love God, her family, animals and her garden. I will always miss her. All my love. Mary Ann(Watson) White

“ Faye was very special to me. She would not come to Tennessee with out spending time with me. Me her and Florence and my Mom would have so much fun. Now all the Daniel kids are with there Dad and Mom again. My Dad would tell me when he was sick that grandma was waiting for him by the river, well I am sure all the family was waiting on Faye. Lover and prayers to all of Faye's kids. I hope you know how much she lived each of you. When she swas here she always talked about y'all.
