“ I didn't know this man myself, but I do know his brother-in-law Todd Fox. In conversations with him, it is obvious this was a good man who loved his family and enjoyed life. My condolences to all of the family.

“ I had the honor and privilege of being Frank's next door neighbor from 1977 until I left for basic training in the Army in 1990. Frank and his family were always more like family to me than just neighbors or friends. Frank always had a very caring heart and a passion for serving Jesus and no matter how anyone acted around him (me included) he always stayed true to his beliefs and shared that love and passion all the days of his life. Even during the last conversation that we shared he spoke only of great memories and the love of his family and Jesus. I am so thankful to have known him all of these years and will always call him my little brother. I look forward to seeing him again in heaven. My prayers go out today for Emily, Tad, Rhett, Ivy and for his mom, dad, stepmom and brothers and sister and to all of his family and friends who loved him as deeply as I did.....David Sheets

“ I am so sorry for your loss , Frank was a wonderful man and friend , unfortunately we had lost contact over the years since graduation and my family moving away for the Air Force. I consider Frank one of my best friends and am heartbroken in his passing and not being able to see him again but, rest assured he is a angel watching over you and your sweet family. Please let us know if we can ever help you with anything! May God Bless you and your children.

“ I met Frank when I was 14 years old. We both worked at Sarges Shack down at exit 14. We use to ride to work together with a mutual friend we had in Andy Bledsoe. I remember how we use to laugh the whole way there and back from telling jokes and just picking at one another. He was always such a genuine friend. He was the same person no matter who he was around. As we grew older we all went different directions, but anytime I met Frank out somewhere he always took time to stop and talk. He is such a inspiration for me with the way he loved his family and friends, but mostly because of the way he loved our lord and savior Jesus Christ! I can here God telling him, well done my faithful servant! May you rest in peace my friend! You will be missed.
