Freamon accepted Christ on August 10, 2014 under the leadership of pastor Thessley Baxter. Freamon loved to go to church and that was his passion. Freamon was united in holy matrimony on October 22, 1991 to Ruby Mae Holt and was a dedicated husband and a great provider. Freamon was employed at American Magotteaux for 40 years until his health failed and he retired. He enjoyed traveling, sports, fishing, and going to football games and basketball games on Friday nights. Freamon was a man with very few words he was a very quiet man with not much to say but when he did his statement was understood and you knew what he meant. He said what he said and meant what he meant. Freamon loved spending time with his family and he was a very dedicated husband, father, grandfather, and stepfather and to all that he came in contact with.
