“ I knew Butch for just a short time. I may have known him in my younger years but most recently I was glad to be able to meet him again ironically, at my Aunt Doris's funeral in Tennessee. Several of us including my dad, Harvey, and sister Karen, made a trip to the Hickory House only to find it had just closed for the day. I was really looking for some good BBQ, and getting to know Uncle Butch and Aunt Nay better. It seems I just found a wonderful family member I didnt realize I had and then they are gone. You have fought a long and hard battle so God Bless and go rest in peace.
