“ Mr. Ferguson would substitute for Mrs. Ferguson when I was in high school at G.C.H.S, he was always entertaining. Years later when I used to go to Harvey's gym, he and I would race on the stationary bikes. He always won. He was always a kind and humorous man, and will be missed. My prayers are with his family and loved ones now in this time of loss.

“ I got to know Mr.Ferguson from Ivy Crest when I sit with a few that were there. My daughter was sitting with Mrs.Ann Harris they were at the same table in the dining room .He loved to pick on Jennifer Lawrence because she was going to have a baby at that time. He thought the world of Lilly when she was born Mrs .Ann and George was the first to see her when we left the hospital. He was great man just sorry I didn't get to know him sooner but I will look back on the meals that I have sit in one with him ,Mrs. Ann, Mr.&Mrs. Garner an can't forget Owen. God bless you at this time.

“ We warmly remember the fellowship and friendship shared with George when he was the pastor of the Walthamstow Church of the Nazarene (London, England) in the 1950s. He was good company and had a great sense of humour. He was friendly with members of our family (Wood) and also with members of the Maclagan family (the late Rev James B Maclagan was the Nazarene District Superintendent at the time). We thank God for George and Martha and for the ministry they exercised.

“ I attended Northwest Nazarene College (now University) with George in the early 50's. As a student, he was very popular and conducted many revivals throughout the area. Later, when I was pastoring in North Dakota and George was pastoring in Moorhead, Minnesota I had him conduct a revival for me and my church. Always admired George and counted him as one of my dear friends. Heaven is richer and the pull in that direction is stronger now that he is there. ---Donald L. Runyon

“ I met George when I was a high school sophomore at Kuna, Idaho high school in 1952 and he was a pastoral student at Northwest Nazarene College. He spent a lot of time with our family, called my parents "mom and dad" and was like a brother to me and my siblings. We remained good friends all our lives, visiting him and Martha in California and Tennessee and he visiting my husband and me in Oregon. We also kept in touch by phone periodically. Loved George, he was like a brother. We will meet again!
