“ I am so sorry to hear that Harvey has died. I have so many wonderful memories of Harvey and Dorothy. My thought about Harvey is 'What is he up to now?' He had so many hobbies and interests. He helped me learn how to grow chilies 🌶️ and orchids. He fixed my vacuum more than once. He always kept my kitchen knives sharpened. I loved collecting palm fronds for him after a storm so that he could paint them. It was always so fun to see what he created from something that other people put to the curb to be hauled away. Harvey as always regularly in service, always ready to help anyone, always had a project, and was always interesting to talk to. I will look forward to seeing him in the resurrection.
