“ So very sorry for your loss. Praying for you all. Jackie loved life and the last time I saw her we talked about happy we were since we left Walmart. She loved that place on the river. She will be greatly missed. May you all find comfort in God's loving arms.

“ I'll never forget when she went on a hayride one night about 15 years ago and while she was gone me and another friend of ours rolled her house. I was 50 years old and had never done it before. Grown women ducking from the headlights afraid to get caught. She never knew for 2-3 years that we were responsible. She laughed and told me that we weren't very good at it. I also remember her and her brother Todd's love for one another.

“ My heart is broken. Jackie was a sweet soul, so loving and caring but could make you laugh in your worst day! Jackie was one of my favorites and we always talked about the weekends at the river. I bet I have over 30 photos she’s sent me on the weekends of the beautiful sunsets at river. I will forever cherish them. Every time I look at a sunset, I will forever remember Jackie. I will miss your smile, your personality but I will miss the most asking you “How are you doing” and the response was always: Fabulous. My friend rest easy. Will miss you 💔
