“ Emily,

I'm sorry to read about you dad. Please pass on my best wishes to your other family members. At times like these 2 scritpures come to my mind. Please read John 5:28 and 29 and also Revelation 21:1-4. I hope that these will bring you a measure of comfort at this time.

Friends always,

“ to all the family i am so sorry of your loved one's passing.i guess i am confused.i took care of mrs. eslick in the nursing home there in pulaski and i loved her so much.i also bought a regal buick from one of the brothers and i thought it was Ralph but i cannot remember that well but he lived over close to the high school i thought.but i know one thing it was like a brand new one and my daughter enjoyed driving it.you will be in my thoughts and prayers.i love you'all.death always hurts and it leaves you lonely but what i did after john died i went to the nursing home and visited with people i knew and had taken care of and that sort of made me feel some better.but i do wish you'all all the luck and god will be with you all the way.Mr.Eslick was a good man. “ I actually lit a candle at 1 o'clock on this day of Mr Eslick's memorial service,....the candle came from Pulaski Jewelry...and has 2 wicks to represent both Emily and Amy. I will leave it burning in my home and attend visitation and services and will enjoy the aroma in my home when I return.

BLESSINGS on the entire family of wife, children, and their husbands and children and grandchildren

“ Amy,

I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I have been keeping yo all in my heart and prayers. I had intended to attend your father's visitation, but we had a family member facing grave health issues that same weekend. May God comfort all of you during this difficult time.
