“ To all the family of Darren, we were so saddened to hear of his passing. It has been many years since I saw him last. Hold fast to your memories and a part of him will always be with you. It has always been said that time is a great healer. With Gods help you will get through this. Praying for all of you at this time. Love Shirley and family..

“ Darren was our [almost] next door neighbor through my years in West Limestone. Many Sundays he would ride with us to church at Salem Springs Baptist. I am so saddened to hear of his untimely passing and offer my prayers to his family.

“ Dead Dad,

I miss you so much. It's still very awkward. I was only just getting to get to know you, and I lost you. I wanted you in my life too much I think. I had waited 20 years to get to know, and you were stolen from us by a man who wanted your money. I know you're in Heaven now and one day we'll see one another again. One day you'll see the Baby and he'll get to know you. I hope you know that all is forgiven. It has been for a number of years now.

I love you Daddy..
