“ I met Jim maybe 20 years ago thru the Callmakers and Collectors Assoc. We would meet up at St. Charles Illinois and Reelfoot Lake and occasionally talk on the phone. Jim always had a story or two to share, a fun guy with a good sense of humour and enthusiasm for life. Sorry to hear of his passing but apparently was doing what he loved when he left us.

“ Jim and I have been decoy collecting friends for many years. My favorite memory of him occurred in April 1986 at the Decoy auction in St Charles, IL during the Midwest Decoy Show. We were conversing before the auction and a man came up and said, "Sir, Do you collect decoys?"

Jim replied, "Yes"

The man asked, "How long have you been collecting?"

Jim replied, "Several years."

"Are there any in the auction that interest you?"

Jim said, "There are a few I am considering."

"Which ones?"

Since one doesn't discuss bidding with strangers, Jim replied, "I'd rather not say."

The man said, "Thank you! Governor." and walked away.

Jim turned to me and said. "What's was that all about?"

I replied your name tag says JIM THOMPSON who is currently the governor of the great state of Illinois and you bear a striking resemblance to him.

From then on I referred to him as governor and on the day of his death I received his annual Christmas card signed, "the Gov".

The decoy and duck calling world will miss him greatly and I consider it the loss of a great friend and reservoir of knowledge.
