“ I'm sorry to learn of Jeanne's passing. She was a vibrant lady whom I knew from church and from theatre. I loved her character portrayals on the stage and her good spirit at church and UMW. Intelligent, full of humor and strength--that's what I remember best.

“ Cindy, I can never think of Jeanne without smiling, or more often, laughing. She was always a bright spot in every day. When we gathered together to watch our football games, everyone, young and old, wanted to be near Jeanne! Her stories were enthralling, and her beyond bubbly personality only added to the enjoyment. Please know that I will never forget her friendship, kindness, and love. My thoughts are with you, your family, and friends on this day. It was obvious how proud Jeanne was of her family, and I am positive she found constant comfort in your love. Circumstances have developed that will keep me from today's service, but, please know that I am there in spirit. Betty D Strickland
