“ Jesse was truly one of a kind. If he meet you once he knew you everytime he saw you. He worked on a tire for my husband and wouldn't take any money for what he had done. God had a plan for Jesse he needed someone that was good working on cars. Now he is able to race against the likes of Earnhardt, Allison and others. God bless this family as they go thought this time. Bless all of his friends that can all tell you a story about something Jesse had done.

“ Because you were a McGill

It just doesn't seem possible, it just doesn't feel right, You're supposed to still be here with us, you weren't supposed to have left us that night.

*You're now in a mansion and we know that you're in Heaven's garage,
A brand-new car was waiting on you, was it a Ford, GMC, Chevy or Dodge?*

I can only imagine when you walked through the Pearly gate, what you heard the angel say, “Your car and gear are waiting for you; you've got to lead the way.”

*No one will ever forget you, because you were always willing to give anyone your time,
You didn't do it because you had too, and you'd always give someone your last dime.*

*I hope that there's a dirt track in Heaven, because playing in dirt was your way of having fun.,
The motor doesn't need any adjustments, and losing isn't an option, because you've already won.*

Everyone will always cherish our memories of you, and you'll always be in our heart, While we're struggling with the heartache of losing you, you're waiting for the race to start.

No one will ever forget your smile or some of the things that you would say, Something like, "What's up, I'm good, or It's been a good day."

*I can never remember a time that I ever seen you and your hands were clean,
You always had grease or oil-stained hands, and in your work boots, you could be seen.*

*You always enjoyed spending time with kids and letting them see your race car,
We'll always remember you wanting to play for 10 on the pool table, at any bar.*

*You weren't ever looking for trouble, but would never back down from a fight,
You always wanted people to have a good time, and for you, everything was "aight."*

*You've made it to the checkered flag, and you are sitting at the top,
You will never have to worry about car trouble or having to make a pitstop.*

I'd bet that your black and green logo looks good going around that golden track, You'll always be looking in your rearview mirror, because you'll always be the leader of the pack.

*A deep pain hit all of us, the moment that you left, and we're still trying to think this through,
We weren't ready for you to go, and everyone is still in shock, including Me2.*

Driving fast and having fun is what always gave you a thrill, It's part of who you were, and your legacy will always live on, because you were a McGill.

“ I remember the time he ran in under the truck at corner market. My son, Wesley Evans told me come on mama we gotta go! We pulled up and Jesse was walking around just fine. How I don't know. I loved this kid and hated terribly to hear this tragic news. Prayers to the family for comfort and peace in the days ahead. Again I am so sorry, my heart aches for you!! With love Brenda Nelson. Wish I could be there but I live in Arkansas now! Prayers and thoughts are right there with y'all!!
