“ My uncle JP was always kind and loving and always had that special smile on his face. My mother loved her brother so much. I know she was right there to greet him in Heaven. I have wonderful memories of staying with Uncle JP, Aunt Evelyn, and Lucy sometimes in the summers. My thoughts and prayers are with Aunt Evelyn, Lucy, his grandsons and great grandchildren. He will be greatly missed and was loved by so many.

“ I am so sorry about Mr. Colvin. I loved him dearly and never saw him when he was not smiling. He was such a faithful servant of God and was a valuable Chamber of Commerce member while I was with the Chamber for sixteen years. I missed getting to the funeral home and I just wanted you to know how much I respected him. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ My Uncle J.P. was the most loving and devoted family man I have ever known. Their Mama, Rosa Mae, died while J.P. was still in the school and he stepped up to care for the family just as he began his life with my wonderful Aunt Evelyn. As the oldest brother of my Mom, Marie, and their sisters, Betty, Louise and Frannie, he always put their needs ahead of his own . As a husband and father, he was simply the best God made...exceptional! He knew Evelyn was the best thing to ever happen to him and he did not let oneday go by that he didn't show her his love & devotion. He was her greatest fan and appreciated her delicious cooking and would always brag on her talents. His eyes twinkled with pure love for her. Their lovely daughter, my sweet cousin, Lucy was equally adored and the pride and joy of her Daddy's heart! Their home was always open to our extended families with warmth and graciousness. There was much joy and laughter there.

You will be so missed Uncle J.P., but I know that God has great plans that include using your infinite wisdom and love beyond this world and into eternity.

Until our souls meet again; I love you.

We enjoyed staying with them for a few days and had a great time talking and remembering old times and happy days. JP was a great man, a loving husband, father and brother.
