

Johnathan Fitzgerald Jenkins

March 9, 1973 - January 27, 2023

John was born March 8, 1973 in Pulaski, Tennessee to William Larry Marks and LaVerne Jenkins Nolen. He transitioned from this life to his heavenly home on Friday, January 27, 2023.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents Reverend Horace and Kathleen Marks, William and Berniece Jenkins, Henry and Nettie Nolen, and his sister Angie Byrd.

John was reared in Giles County Tennessee and while in high school, he gave his life to The Lord. He was baptized by Apostle Stanley Garrett at First Missionary Baptist Church on West Shoals Street, Pulaski, Tennessee.

John was educated in the Giles County School System. He graduated from Giles County High School Class of 1991. After graduation, he attended Motlow State Community College, and in 1996 he graduated from Austin Peay State University with a degree in Public Administration.

He was a lover of sports. He played soccer, football, and was an avid basketball player. Throughout grade school, high school, the collegiate level, and semi-pro level, John exuded excitement on the court with his gravity defying dunks, and astonishing skillset. He shared his love for the game and skills as a coach at Bacone College in Muskogee, Oklahoma. He then attended Martin Methodist College obtaining a degree in Education. He most recently taught special education at Lyles Middle School, Garland, Texas.

John had a big personality, loved people, and never met a stranger. Throughout his basketball career, he accumulated numerous friends from everywhere, and he still remained in

with his childhood friends.

He spent his final years in Texas; refereeing, teaching, and being the best father to his son Jalen, who was the center of his world.

John was loved by everyone he met and was the perfect son, father, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend. He will be greatly missed.

The visitation will be 11:00am to 12:00pm Saturday, February 11, 2023, at Bennett-May & Pierce Funeral Home.

The funeral service will follow at 12 o'clock noon in the chapel of Bennett-May & Pierce Funeral Home.

The burial will follow in Maplewood Cemetery in Pulaski, Tennessee.

John leaves behind to cherish his memories his beloved son Jalen Jenkins, Garland, TX; his mother LaVerne (Jerry) Nolen, Pulaski, TN; his father William Larry (Anne) Marks Lakenheath,

England; sisters Kim Byrd, Pulaski, TN, Sheryl Marks, Hutschenhausen, Germany; step-sisters

Tammy (Donald) Perry, Patricia Nolen; step-brothers Timothy Nolen, Jerry Nolen; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I am lost with words...he was such a sweet, kind teacher always with a bright smile. I remember seeing him everywhere I go and always saying hi to me knowing that my favorite teacher is gone . I feel like I am dreaming. I just wanted to give my condolences and a big hug for his family and friends through this tough time 🕊️🙏

“ I am still in a state of disbelief but I have to accept it, you are gone ahead to be with the Lord. We would not go this long and dont speak. You are a very special person, I will treasure all the memories we shared. I will always remember you as a dedicated father and educator. You wanted so much more for the children you work with. I will remember you for the way you spoke and love on your family and your friends. I will remember our quality time together, just reasoning but also making a fool of ourselves. Memories. Jonathan, the father, teacher, son, brother, nephew, friend and confidant. I will always carry you in my heart.
