“ This if for the whole Fowlkes Tribe.....this is the saddest time we will encounter for now. Then we'll start to heal. Joe was one of the "good" guys, always willing to help others.He also had a smile & laughter that was infectious. This he'll pass on to us. He's best accomplishment was the Love he has for Tammie & the girls, this will be passed on also. Tammie, if you need anything....Granny is here! Sending light & love your way. XX OO

“ I never met Joe III, but it's obvious he was his father's son. Joe Jr. and I were college roommates. My heart is heavy this morning on learning of this tragic passing. Life is often not fair, and this ranks as least fair. My sympathies to the entire Fowlkes family. Ron Patton, Chattanooga

“ I've known Joe for about 8 years and every single memory I have of him is wonderful. He was always happy and it made you happy, he was caring and outgoing, always had a great time with whoever he hung out with. When we went through crisis, he was there for us, helping with food and being a great friend.. I had a ton of fun playing soccer with him last Friday, he was the best goalkeeper! I just want to say thank you Joe for being my friend, like an uncle to me in a way, you where like family and so is Tammy and the girls-- im glad i got to have you as my neighbor and a great friend, always looking out for everyone. May your soul rest in peace, we gained a guardian angel to look after each of us.. Ill miss you man you where the best.. I promise ill always be watching after your girls and be there for your family just like you where always here for everyone that needed a good friend.
