“ My family cherishes so many fond of memories of Uncle JM and Aunt Mary. Most of those memories end in much laughter, and there are so many that my mother and I have recalled over the past days. We were blessed to have called him not only uncle, but friend. He is dearly missed already. On behalf of my mother (Peggy Hagood) , and all of our family, we offer our condolences to those who will grieve Uncle JM's passing but also will rejoice for his eternity.

Jackie, Sabine, and family,

I was surely blessed to spend my childhood in Harwell Heights. Uncle JM and Mary lived there and I spent alot of time with them.

Uncle J M took me to finish up a USAF exam, and was stationed in West Germany where I met my Wife Sabine. I owe them for all there kindness and blessings. I know he loved and served the LORD what a great victory.

*JM was my great Uncle, and his being was just that GREAT!
Love Sabine Jackie, and family.*

“ JM (as he was known) was one gentleman and was a pleasure to be around. He was a great storyteller regarding his experiences in the war, traveling with Mary, and his past work places of Kuhns, and Woodmen of the World. . Up until the end he was blessed with a great recall of his life and loved sharing his stores. He was the last of a generation of his family. Dan and Pam Phillips, Nashville, TN.
