“ Tony and I send our most heartfelt sympathy to all of Joshua's family and friends..I remember him playing Little League at Soderquist Ball park for Turlock National Little League. You could see the joy on his face as he played. He had the most Infectious smile !

To understand our small world, when Joshua was a Youth Pastor he worked with our grandson, Blaine and help him so very much ! Blaine loves the Lord and Joshua helped him find the path.

Our prayers are with you all,

Tony and Melody Lema,

“ Josh was the funniest person at Denair High. Everyone like him. I have so many memories of him making me laugh. I have missed him since not seeing him much after high school but now this is heartbreaking. My deepest sympathy to his wife and kids and his family who would so kindly let us all run around at their house. Love, Kirsten and Bobby Moser
