“ Even though we only met Judith twice, we will remember her for her gentle quiet reserve and southern grace and charm. We will always remember and forever appreciate how both Judith with Ben embraced Rich to make him part of their family. We will always remember how both Judith welcomed us when we arrived to help celebrate Rich and Meredith's wedding and later the comfort given us when we so tragically lost Rich's brother Ryan.

We were honored to know Judith however briefly and only wish we could have gotten to know her better.

Along with Rich's Grandmother our hearts and prayers are with Ben, Meredith, Rich, Claire and the rest of Judith's family.

Love,

“ Ron and I are blessed to have had Judith in our lives. We have so many wonderful memories of our time with such a graceful Lady. Hiking in the fall leaves, walks on the beach, Spegetti dinners, hours of Mexican Train both with the guys or just the girls with our wine poolside.
Ben we love you and Judith and our hearts are hurting.... Our prayers are for Judith's peace and for your whole family to find peace and comfort with the Lord and your special memories of her.

“ Dear Friends and Family,

Life is precious and we often value it more when we lose someone to our greatest enemy death. My memory of Judith is of course not a recent one, because I have not seen or heard from her for many years, but I am sure she lived a full and vibrant life, just as she did as I remember her from our schools days together.

In times like these we would like to find comfort for our grief. The Bible provides such comfort. We can be assured that Judith now is suffering no pain as she has fallen asleep in death. When it comes to this thought the scripture at Ecclesiastes 9:5 assures of this. But what is the hope for those like Judith. They are awaiting what John 5:28, 29 brings to mind as the most wonderful hope those who have gone to sleep. Jesus assures us that she will hear his voice and awaken by means of resurrection. What a wonderful time it will be to be reunited with our dear loves ones. Revelation 21: 4 will be fulfilled and we can live in peace and happiness of a beautiful paradise earth forever as Psalms 37:11 and 29 promises.

I hope that those who read this will take the opportunity to find the comfort only God can provide by reading the scriptures above. 2 Timothy 3:16 says in part that all scripture is inspired of God and for setting things straight.

My our great heavenly father Jehovah God help you find relief and comfort during this particular difficult time.

Sincerely,

Edward Parsons

“ We are sorry for your loss of Ms. Judith. She always had a smile and kind words when we saw her at the pointe. In time, your memories will give you so much comfort and you will be able to smile again. This gentle lady will be missed and always remembered by many for her kindness and her way of always bring a smile to everyone she touched.

“ Our hearts are with you all this morning as you celebrate Judith's loving life. I am so very sorry that the world - and you my loved family - have lost her suddenly. Over time, I pray comfort and a cheerful sense of her influence will settle in as we notice all the ways her life continues to affect others. Her grandbabies, nieces and nephews will always remember her kindness and attention and when I picture her I see her face light with sparkly eyes as she held a little one or or her delight in greeting someone she loved. Our love and tears shared with you all.
