“ Lord, I can't believe this one !!! This man was one of a kind. Me and my son Abel would play with his dog Blackey and shoot the crap on his back porch while my sister Rebecca Stewart cleaned his house on prospect road. We met him through a guy named Richard. Him and Richard had a falling out but he d ride over my mom's house in Elkton on baugh road and visit us and that's wen my dad Rickey Holley was alive. He had a huge soy bean farm. I mean huge. We knew his ex wife Dawn that worked at post office too. I also met his mother before she passed away wen I worked at keystone Hewitt house n Pulaski, TN. My son Abel Holley and I Ashley Holley loved his tree swing. He d tell us stories in the war he was in and all kinds of exciting stuff. Maybe back then had him a vodka tonic or two. He will be dearly missed. He was one of a kind. My dad Rickey Holley will have someone to talk to now in heaven. Love,Pat,Ashley,Abel,and Rebecca from Elkton TN. And Pulaski,TN
