“ My beloved Aunt Laura was the rock of our family. She will be greatly missed, but her memory and legacy will live on in each of us. I will always cherish the value of family that you instilled in us. I will always remember when you told me to hold my kids tight, and love on them for as long as I could, because we are not promised tomorrow. I am glad I got to come home and hug and squeeze you one last time before your journey home. I love you Aunt Laura may you rest in Heaven were you belong.
