“ I'll never forget Memaw. She loved big and was always full of joy. Growing up, one of my fondest memories was visiting her and Dudaddy out in Greenville. Nothing beat those days. After hugging all of the air out of me and Aidan, she would prepare a huge delicious lunch and we would all come in and chow down then sit around in the cool and nap. What a joyous lady. Heaven got a good one. I miss her very much.

“ She was a special lady and a best friend. Our friendship was very special. Our trips out west, Maine. The Amish county and all the time we spent together was so special. We would all eat together in one of ourRV's or stop for lunch at noon somewhere. It broke my heart when I got the news. Lorrene and Max held a special place in our hearts. They were like family. We were family, she was my sister in the most special way. My sister in Christ. She passed on my birthday. Love her dearly, Love Max. Rest In Peace Dear sister friend.

“ Lorrene we will miss you 😞

She was a kind soul who could make friends with anyone because of her special, sweet, down home personality. She was a good conversationalist and I loved the way she would say your name at the beginning of sentences. She was full of interesting information from current news to almanac facts. I especially loved the way she loved Dad. They had a great life together traveling with friends and moving around the state. Rest In Peace dear Lorrene. We love you ❤️

*I read all the comments about Lorrene. Everyone sure said the perfect thoughts. She was all you said. She had an infectious smile that always made you feel welcome. She was a wonderful hostess and great cook. (I still have some of the recipes she shared.) She was very caring and giving. She called often to check on my husband when he had cancer. Her letters were filled with stories of the many travels and adventures she and Max took. A very special lady who will be missed by us all. Love and prayers to the family, especially Max.
