“ I have many lovely memories of growing up with Louise. One in particular comes to mind: she, Peggy Paulk, and I were Wynkyn, Blynkyn, and Nod in the spring program at Pulaski Elementary school. We were stuffed in a child's wagon which was covered to resemble a wooden shoe. Even 70 plus years later I can still remember how hot I was as we sang our hearts out.

I'm sure you have many happy memories, too.

My sincere sympathy.
