

Louise Colvin Dunavant

February 2, 1930 - October 22, 2015

Bennett-May-Giles Count Funeral Home, 1910 Elkton Pike, Pulaski, TN 38478
Phone: 931-363-0828

Louise Colvin Dunavant of Campbellsville, TN passed away on Thursday, October 22, 2015 at Meadowbrook Healthcare in Pulaski.

She was born in Boaz, AL on February 2, 1930 and was 85 years old.

She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. She loved to laugh and deeply enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. She was a member of the Campbellsville United Methodist Church and a proud lifelong member of the Campbellsville Community.

Visitation will be on Thursday, October 22nd from 5:00pm until 7:00pm, and Friday, October 23rd from 1:30pm until funeral time at 3:00pm at Bennett-May-Giles County Funeral Home with John Birdsong officiating.

Burial will follow in the Maplewood Cemetery.

Memorial suggestions are asked to go to the Campbellsville United Methodist Church Memorial Fund at 10653 Campbellsville Rd, Pulaski, TN 38478.

She was preceded in death by her parents Jessie Roy and Rosa Mae Lockridge Colvin, brother, JP Colvin, sister, Betty Colvin Biles, infant son, Mark Colvin Dunavant, and great-granddaughter, Lux Dunavant.

She is survived by her,

Husband of 67 years, Mark Dunavant of the Campbellsville Community
Son, Richard (Jaretha) Dunavant of Pulaski

Daughter, Rosemary (Danny) Martin of the Campbellsville Community

Daughter, Sally Brindley of Pulaski

Grandchildren, Randle (Jennifer) Owens, Kevin Owens, Ashley Rose, Alan (Tiffany) Martin, Matthew Martin, James (Courtney) Dunavant, and Sasha Dunavant.

6 Great-grandchildren

Bennett-May-Giles County Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements for Louise Colvin Dunavant.

Tribute Wall

CJ

“ *Mark and family,
Edward, Danny and I extend our sympathy to you all during this time. Claudia*

Claudia Kay Johnson - February 09, 2015 at 11:49 PM

RM

“ Sasha, that was lovingly said. Thanks so much. Rosemary

rosemary martin - February 09, 2015 at 11:49 PM

SD

“ Dear Grandmama,

I tried to make myself be able to come to say goodbye, but I have been unable to do it. I even got completely dressed today, and I could not get in the car to drive to your funeral. Since my sweet baby Lux died, I have had a hard time saying goodbye when it is permanent. I have not been able to go to a funeral home or a funeral since the day of Lux's funeral. This entire week knowing that you were going to be gone from this earth forever has brought up so many memories of losses, and I've had to try to come to terms with the fact that you are someone I'll never see again either.

I know your body was weary. I am sure your heart was ready to see your mama you lost so many years ago. I believe you are already reunited with your mother. I believe you have hugged your baby boy that you buried and that you've met my baby Lux. If I did not believe there is a joyous reunion for believers, it would all be too hard to bear. So, instead of me tearing my own heart out by being where the shell of you is today, I am thinking of you visiting with Marie Parker and Aunt Gene and Granny and the other ladies from Campbellsville and Aunt Betty and Uncle J.P. I can handle it this way. I can think of you resting in peace and happiness, and I can handle that people we love die and never come back here.

I want you to know that I have every single one of the pretty things you gave me, the dolls, figurines, books and little dishes and even the frilly dresses mama saved that I was going to let Lux wear. I think of you when I look at my Wizard of Oz things and when I remember playing with so many things you took the time to pick just for me. You always knew how to buy the perfect presents that showed you thought about a person, and that meant so much to me. Thank you for that. I'm adding a picture of me with you when I was a tiny baby. I think you look proud to have a granddaughter. I was proud to be your granddaughter, and I still am.

So, please watch over Lux for me until I get there, Grandmama. I'll see you all then.

Love,

Sasha Kay Dunavant

Sasha Dunavant - February 09, 2015 at 11:49 PM