“ Thinking of all of you during this sad time. But we all know she's in heaven with your father and Jesus. She isn't suffering anymore; Ms. Pitts was the sweetest neighbor and friend that I was Blessed in knowing. I will truly miss her and she will always be in my heart forever. God Bless You All with deepest sympathy. Love Laura Nwosu

“ I miss you Granny. I miss the touch of your soft skin, your smell, your laugh, your smile. You were a remarkable woman. I miss your guidance of showing me to do what is right. You always made me want to be a better person by just spending time with you. You seemed to always put things into perspective and point me into the direction that I should be going. I wish I could call you one more time and hear you voice again. I know that you are looking down and guiding us on the narrow path to the "Lord." I cannot wait to see you again and to feel your warm embrace.
Love you,
Melissa

“ The smile was a gift to our family. Her husband, Amuel and she were such a team that I could not think of them separated. Don't think that worked well for her either and now the separation is over. Thanks be to God. Thanking God for my very special accomplished sister. She chose to live a beautiful productive life and blessed us with her presence. I still have the gold class ring from Fayetteville Central High that I wore to my 60th high school reunion in September 2015. I would not have had this without her. I do not know anyone who loved her family more. You-all have a great heritage today meaning especially kids and grandkids. God saw fit to give you the best and I am thankful for the kindness that you showed to her. That helped that smile work overtime with the sparkle in her eyes.
