

Mamie Rene Durham

April 17, 1935 - March 16, 2015

Mamie Rene Davis Durham, 79, died Monday, March 16, 2015.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lindsey Durham, her parents, Blanche Parsons Davis and Rufus C. Davis and brothers W.C. Davis and Lewis Davis.

Mrs. Durham was born April 17, 1935, at Minor Hill, Giles County, Tenn., and lived most of her adult life in Pulaski. She was retired from Torrington Fafnir and a member of Highland Baptist Church. She had a green thumb and loved cultivating her houseplants, and flowers. She found pleasure in listening to a variety of musical genres.

Mrs. Durham was a devoted mother, grandmother and sister who found her deepest satisfaction in her relationships with her daughters and granddaughters. She delighted in hearing about their activities and sharing in their joys. She took pride in their accomplishments, offering unwavering encouragement that instilled a confidence that sustains these women through their personal and professional lives. Her capacity for nurturing extended to her great-grandsons, with whom she was shared her boundless love. Her much-anticipated great-granddaughter, who was born only days before her death, was no less loved because only their souls crossed paths on this earth. She is survived by daughters Patsy Newton (Joseph) Pellecchia, of Nashville, and Donna Newton (Roger) Clark, of Pulaski; grandchildren Allyson Butler (Franklin) Summers; Meagan Butler (Adam) DeWitt; and Mallory Butler, all of Pulaski; two sisters, Almeda Davis Hughes of Giles County and Mary Ann

Davis Shultz, of Lawrence County; four great- grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held at Bennett-May Giles County Funeral Home on Thursday, March 19, 2015, from 4-8 p.m., with services at 2 p.m. Friday, March 20 with Tommy Graham and Toby Powell officiating, and entombment to follow in Giles Memory Gardens. Bennett-May-Giles County Funeral Home in charge of arrangements for Mamie Rene Davis Durham.
