“ Margaret was a thoughtful, kind and loving lady. Her family and my family were neighbors as we were growing up. Her sweet mother was my kindergarten teacher at the Public Library and often picked me up to go. Margaret and I were very active in the UMYF, the youth group at First United Methodist Church where she was always a great leader. After she and Tom were married they raised cattle as did my family. If our cows got out, they were always there to help us get them back in as well as we were when their cows got out. Neighbors who were special. I have a note written to me by Margaret dated in 2006, thanking us for our help with cattle. That note has been a bookmark in my Bible ever since. T and my son, Steven, were the same age and played together as children. I see wonderful traits of Margaret in T. Blessings to T and Karen.
