“ We did not know Meri Hannah nor do we know her family but this absolutely breaks our hearts. I was crying after hearing that she passed and thinking about the pain her family was going through. We have a teenage daughter that is driving and this could definitely be us and our family. Please know there are people you do not even know hurting for you and thinking of you.

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of this sweet wonderful girl. Many memories of riding with her and her family will always stay close. To the parents, there is no way anyone can prepare you for such a loss. There will always be a hole that no one can fill but if we ask God for strength in these terrible times He will give us peace and comfort. Know that I love you all and feel your pain. God bless you so much and may you find comfort in loving memories. Sandy Sanders
