“ Michelle, it's so hard to believe your in a better place now. I loved you so much and my heart is breaking. I will never forget all the games our boys played together. I was for sure if anyone could beat the terrible C. It would be you I will cherish all our memories together and will never forget when Anthony picked Blade as his #1 pick in minor league. You was so funny over who yo pick next. I will always love and miss you my dear friend 📍🙏🥹

“ I have known Michelle all of my life. Her father and my dad were lifetime friends. She was always Shelly Bug to my dad. So pretty. I was inspired and amazed by Michelle's courage and positive outlook during her battle with cancer. Read all of her FB posts and prayed for her to beat the disease. I'm incredibly sad to hear of her passing.

Go walk with Jesus now, Michelle. Pain free and well loved. Prayers and love to all of your family.
