“ I met Mimi 50 years ago. We were instant lifelong friends. She was the best story teller with a memory for every detail. When we talked, most of our time was spent laughing. She brought out the best in me. She nurtured mind, body, and spirit. She had a courageous love for life and family and friends and of course, UT. I will hold her in my heart forever.

“ One of the many reasons I became a teacher is because of the influence you had on me in 5th grade at McKissack. You made learning fun. I enjoyed keeping in touch with you and sharing stories about our life's adventures. I know you are resting now in God's arms. GO BIG ORANGE!!! Until we meet again...
