“ I extend my deepest, heartfelt condolences to Bill, the family and friends of Nedra. Truly, I was blessed in my interactions with Nedra. Since the time I first met Nedra at Martin Methodist College she has and will remain a significant influence. I greatly appreciated her cheerful disposition and nurturing as I attempted to navigate the 'role' of president's spouse during George's tenure. I can hear her now...greeting me and all of us with, "Morning Glory"... Thank you Nedra for your life of extending God's love... With much love, Susan Miller

“ My deepest sympathy to Nedra's family. It was one of the greatest privileges of my career to work with Nedra when I served as President of Martin College, and to count her as a personal friend during my tenure and thereafter. She exemplified professionalism, integrity and concern for the welfare of students and coworkers. Moreover, she was always positive and cheerful, and was devoted to serving others.

Nedra will be missed by many. I hope that the warm thoughts or her numerous friends will bring a measure of peace to her loved ones during this difficult time.

“ Our deepest sympathy, thoughts, and prayers to all of Nedra's family and friends. Nedra was instrumental in the lives of so many foreign students for Martin Methodist College. She was loved by so many throughout the world. A beacon of light in the hopes and dreams of so many who may have never taken that leap of faith that belief that a Christian education would open doors in so many ways. Mrs. Nedra Trebing was that light. Nedra's light will now shine on forever in the Kingdom of Heaven and through all the lives she has touched throughout her amazing career. We thank you Nedra for all you have done for us. Here is just a few students you have helped; Hideyuki Nagano, Norihiro Shimizu, Yoko Sone, and Masako Okame Tidrow.
