“ I will always remember Nick as an amazing musician with unlimited potential. If it made sound he could play it. An amazing talent gone way too soon. Joe Gregory

“ My name is Robert Pittsley. I am sad to hear that a young man like Nick, at the age of 27, passed away. My wife, Becky Hampton now Pittsley, and I knew Nick from high-school. In fact, he directed Becky, Derek Neach, and myself in the 2008-2009 talent show. Needless to say that he was a good friend to us. A few good things that come to mind when I think about Nick are: he was always dedicated to those around him, and he always looks to have a good laugh, not taking anything to seriously. Nick was a good band leader and a good friend. he will be missed by Becky and me.

“ Nicholas was always a joy to be around. He was always joking and making everyone laugh. Very intelligent young man and could play any musical instrument he put his hands on. Even though he was blind he always knew who was around without anyone telling him. He will surely be missed. Prayers for all who loved him! May you Rest In Peace Nicholas.
