My favorite aunt! After years of the Johnson family being rather spread out, I reconnected with Aunt Ocie nearly 25 years ago and for the last 15 years or so we kept up a near daily email correspondence. Reading her email messages were often the best part of my day. She and I share a number of the same health problems and we sought to encourage each other as best we could. I loved her with all my heart and will miss her terribly.
