“ So many memories with Paul and his family at our precious Rehoboth Church... We grew up learning about God, growing our faith, and watching the older members “walk in their faith”.. With music and those beautiful old hymns being part of my spirit, the older members always supported and encouraged me as a young girl who felt awkward and unsure about her singing. But the other children and youth didn't really notice one way or the other. Except for Paul.. he always found time to say kind words of encouragement to me even though he was an older youth member... We all grew up and our lives took many paths and our children became part of our dear Rehoboth... And then they grew up and followed their paths to other places and churches.. Paul remained, till the very last day, a faithful servant to our little white church, Rehoboth 💜 ... Life's journey filled with ups and downs produces scars on our spirits and hearts that reveal God's love, forgiveness, mercy and grace on the other side... I'm so grateful for every scar that has brought me closer to Him.. One of those scars was helped to heal because of the times during my life that Paul's support, encouragement and kindness... reminded me that our God loves us...always.. 🙏🇺🇸 To you precious family members.. all my love and prayers in your loss. Paul's spirit is singing from our old brown cokesbury hymnal with all our precious Rehoboth dear ones ... in heaven 😊...1 Peter 5:7 Isaiah 41:10. Matthew 11:28-30 🙏
Always loving y'all and here for y'all❤️
