“ I am so sorry for your loss of Phillip. I remember him as a cute young boy in the big house on Second Street way back in the 1960's. Marqueda, you were a dear friend with a sweet spirit, and you sang so beautifully at our wedding. Bettye and all the family were so good to me as a young single girl. When I had complications from a tonsillectomy, Bettye insisted that I stay at her house for a few days and let her take care of me. She and Marqueda were so sweet, and all three boys were good kids and very kind to me. My husband Doug also knew Phillip from many visits to Dunnivant's Store. I treasure the memories of your family, and regret that, because of health issues, I will not be able to attend the funeral service. Blessings to you all, Carolyn Erwin Hughey
